

NASHVILLE INTERNATIONAL
Center for Empowerment

Maternal Health Outreach Worker (Part-Time)

Nashville International Center for Empowerment (NICE), established in 2005, is a nonprofit 501(c)(3) community-based organization dedicated to ensuring refugees and immigrants achieve their full potential now and for generations to come.

Primary Responsibilities are to provide mother-to-mother education, support, and information to economically disadvantaged pregnant women, mothers, and young children 0 to 3 years of age. Through monthly home visits and parenting groups, the outreach worker listens attentively to parent concerns, educates on nutrition, health and child development, models healthy habits and positive parenting skills, and links the client with medical and social services.

The Maternal Health Outreach Worker reports to the Program Coordinator. This is available as a 20-hour, part-time position.

- Recruits and enrolls families in need.
- Makes monthly home visits to listen, provide support, education, information, and referrals.
- Serves as a role model for healthy lifestyles and positive parenting skills.
- Gathers and documents information on each family.
- Advocates on behalf of the family and builds relationships with medical, social service, and other community organizations.
- Participates in orientation and ongoing training to improve knowledge and skills in maternal and child health, child development, family life, and parenting.
- Participates in regional training events.
- Additional duties as assigned.

Requirements:

- Is a parent with a non-violent, positive parenting experience.
- Has legal, reliable transportation and possesses a valid driver's license.
- Has oral and written communication skills comparable to those of a high school graduate.
- Can attend the following: one week orientation, three 1-day regional training sessions, annual 3-day conference, and local trainings.
- Candidate can speak fluent Spanish or Swahili.

Salary & Benefits:

- Job Type: Part time
- Salary Range: $19/hr
